

122 Lockyer Street Adamstown NSW

3 1 2

Offering three well proportioned bedrooms, separate lounge and casual dining area and for those with a different requirement the home can also be configured for a two bedroom with two living areas, the choice is yours.

The kitchen is modern and offers ceasarstone benchtops, more than ample cupboard space and glass splashback, which provides a very funky place for those family messages. A covered timber deck to the rear provides a private entertaining space and there is a separate storage shed and carport accommodation.

This single level, low maintenance home has the feel of days past with polished boards and high ceilings, the added charm of picket fencing and a pleasant front courtyard, and is ideal for a cross section of the marketplace, yet particularly those looking for a villa alternative.

Superbly convenient location nearby to the Merewether
