An iconic home on the corner of Alexander Street directly opposite Learmonth Park, this weatherboard beauty has undergone a SHAC designed renovation and extension to showcase a flawless fusion of Federation elegance with contemporary style and sophistication. Ornate fretwork, stunning plaster ceilings and coloured glass windows are a nod to the 1900s while superb open plan living and dining zones with soaring vaulted ceilings extend to a sun dappled alfresco deck enveloped by glorious gardens to create the perfect backdrop for entertaining. You will also love the return verandah where you can sit for hours as the kids play across the road in the park. Back inside, the island kitchen is a natural gathering point for family life while four bedrooms and two sophisticated bathrooms, fitted with Italian tiles, add to the sense of function and style. This prized locale is just moments from Beaumont Streets dining and shopping, 600m from school and a quick dash to the
