

57 Llewellyn Street Merewether NSW

4 2 2

From the moment you step through the front gate of this gorgeous family home, you'll feel the calming effect of the lush gardens that surround the property in sought-after Merewether. The one-level, four-bedroom 1930s home has been stylishly renovated throughout to suit modern family life, while retaining hints of its original charm.

Screened from the street by hedges, the shady front verandah overlooks a water feature and magnolia tree, setting the relaxed vibe. The master bedroom has a newly-renovated ensuite, while another large bedroom with fireplace and skylight offers versatility to be used as a study or second sitting room. The charming kitchen features the stove set into the original fireplace and opens onto a light-filled living and dining area.
