

34 Fleming Street Wickham NSW

4 2 1

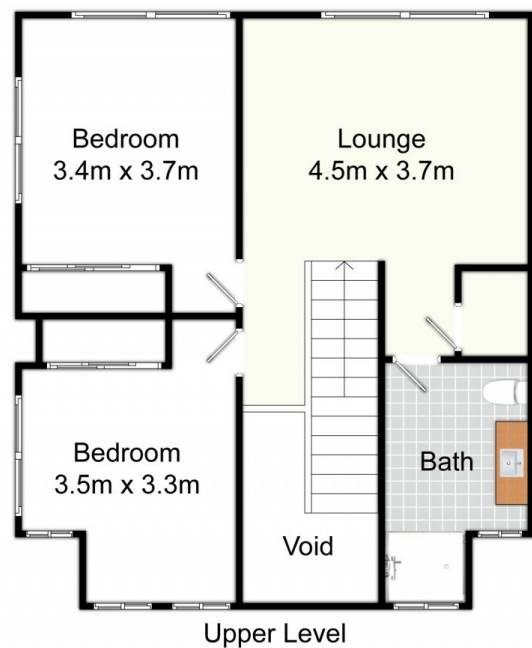

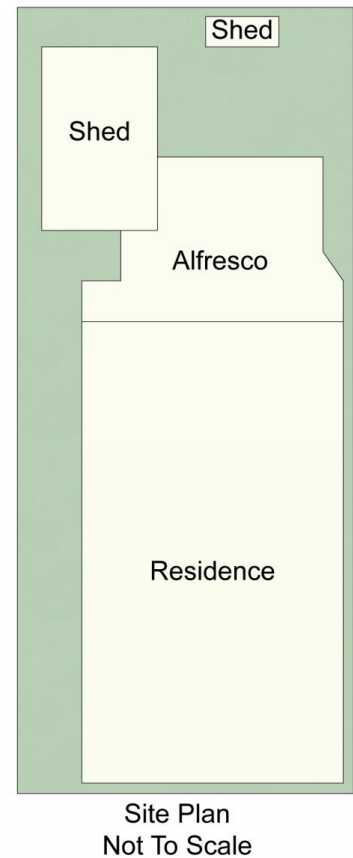

Step into your dream home with this stunning weatherboard property, a modern masterpiece of classic charm and contemporary design. The Murray James architectural renovation has transformed it into a light-filled oasis, perfect for growing families seeking the ideal balance of character and modernity.

From the leadlight front door to the pine floors and ornate plaster ceilings, this property oozes charm and history. But step into the rear and upper level extensions and you'll find a sublime juxtaposition of coastal aesthetics and industrial chic. The soaring 7m void and clerestory windows flood the space with light, while the Blackbutt floors, white timber lined walls, angled ceilings, exposed brick, and brushed brass tapware all blend seamlessly to create a breathtaking living environment.
