Given current circumstances individual viewing is available on Saturday and Sunday between 12:00 and 3:00pm by arrangement - simply call, text or email with your preferred viewing time or if you prefer also, by arrangement any weekday.

The architects who created and designed this apartment understood those elements that define a great place to live. Some call them the one percenters, elements that are desired however seldom found as they require attention to detail and time to deliver.

The opportunity to provide the resident with total climate control has been provided.

Double glazed windows with ventilating windows combine with ducted air conditioning for temperature regulation all year round.

The floor to ceiling length windows and sliding doors allow
