

9 Corindi Street Wallsend NSW

3 1 2

First homebuyers chasing that elusive initial step, property renovators seeking their next project, or developers searching for a good size block for a duplex or townhouse development should not go past this three-bedroom home.

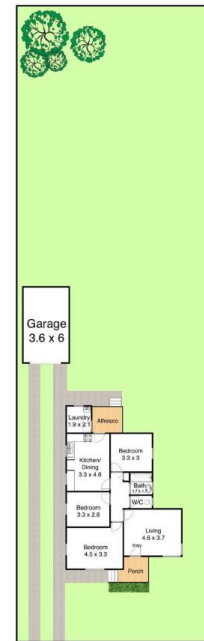

Already updated with a new Colorbond roof, theres no denying the inside needs beautification and repair, ready and waiting for you to roll your sleeves up. The real value however may lie in the 803sqm block with approximate 15.24m wide frontage where there is plenty of room to extend the home, add a second dwelling or knock down and start again with one home or several (all subject to council approval).

Corindi Street is sandwiched between James Park and beautiful Brickworks Park and is just 1200m from Jesmond Central shopping centre, 2.6km from the University of
