

176 Main Road Cardiff NSW

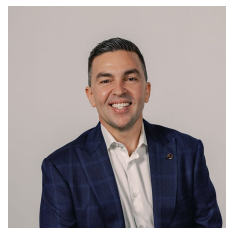

5 2 5

Built on land sold to a school teacher in 1871, few homes in Cardiff today offer the sense of history, privacy and tranquility that abounds in this captivating property. An exclusive offering in terms of its unique floorplan and large 986sqm landholding set more than 25 metres back from the street, it retains much of its rich character appeal whilst redesigned to maximise space, light and today's modern lifestyle.

Offering an abundance of space for the growing family, it boasts a wonderfully flexible layout with a choice of four outdoor living areas, five oversized bedrooms, modern open plan living and dining areas and masses of storage. Its positioned for convenience just minutes to public transport, the John Hunter Hospital, Blackbutt Reserve and local and major shopping centres.
